YOUR CLINICIANS:

Larry Brinker-DRESSAGE:

Larry is a top rated clinician from Canada. He holds a 'R' rating with the American Driving Society in combined driving and technical delegate.

Larry's style of teaching will leave you wanting more; as he's exuberant and challenging, with an easygoing attitude.

In addition to competing, coaching, training and officiating, Larry has served in numerous capacities with national and local equestrian organizations and filled almost every conceivable for horse competition management.

Larry will also be a judge at the Summer Festival CDE in June, 2018.

Megan Sibiga-OBSTACLES:

Megan hails from Oregon. She has been competing in combined driving since she was a teenager. She has endless energy and her style of driving is to attack an obstacle in a safe and forward manner. She trains all breeds of horses and inspires her students with her positive attitude.

Scott Monroe-CONES:

Scott is a "R" CDE judge and "R" technical delegate. Scott is a 3 time national singles champion with his famous horse, Shadow. He was honored with USEF horse of the year as well as reserve horse of the year, twice. He was also Morgan Horse of the year with Shadow. Scott has more than 20 years of driving and training experience. He is a PATH LEVEL 2 therapeutic driving instructor. He offers clinics and private lessons nationwide. Scott is quiet mannered with his students as well as the horses; garnering stellar performances from their cones course rounds. He will take you to the top of your game!
