Cindy Reynolds 2018 Grand Marshal

Cindy Reynolds is one of a kind! The oldest of seven children born to J.L. and Betty Fenical Green, Cindy was raised on a family farm in Saline county. She is a graduate of Nelson High School, Nelson, MO. Cindy shared: "The high school closed right after we graduated. That tells you how bad we were!"

Cindy has been married to her husband, Jim, for 51 years! They met just after high school when Jim sent Cindy a letter, a suggestion received through the "conspiracy" of his and her grandmothers. The grandmothers lived next door to each other and felt this would be a good match. Cindy reported she wasn't so sure, especially when that 6'3" guy crawled out of a Volkswagen! Cindy shared that Jim convinced her to move to Holden because it was "the land of opportunity!"

Cindy and Jim have one daughter and son-in-law, Julie and Matt Kinney, and two grandchildren, Logan and Taylor. And two fur children, Fraudy and DJ!

Most all know Cindy from her years at Gardner's Drive-In, the Holden Image, and, most recently, from Heiman's before her retirement in 2014. She also owned her own business, Exceptional Printing, for 20 years. Did you know she has even sold cars with Bob Cobb or helped with the delivery of a baby!?! (Oh the stories she has to share!)

Cindy hasn't actually retired though... She enjoys helping people. She distributes Young Living Essential Oils and has a passion for finding blends to help people.

Cindy has been a member of Kingsville Baptist Church since 2010. She enjoys being a Sunday School teacher, helping with vacation bible school, building floats for parades, helping with mission work, and anywhere else she is needed. "I am so blessed to serve" says Cindy.

Cindy is also very active in our community. She helped spearhead the Holden Community Betterment Committee in 1987 when the group placed first in the 1987 Missouri Community Betterment Awards competition. This award was achieved through the committee's efforts in painting many of the buildings in the business district and landscaping.

She was named Citizen of The Year in 1987 by Holden Optimist, Woman of The Year in 1988 by Beta Sigma Phi sororities, and received the Horizon Award awarded by the Holden Chamber of Commerce in 1999.

Cindy continues to volunteer with the Holden Chamber of Commerce, Main Street Holden, as a board member of HOPE Coalition, Inc and on the Passion for The Cure committee. She also helps with home-schooling her grandchildren whom she feels is "so much smarter than me!"

In her "free time" Cindy enjoys crocheting, cooking, collecting antique dishes, attending bible study at her church, listening to K-Love, and time with family and friends.

Now about that "land of opportunity..." Cindy offers the following insight: "I have made so many true friends through working with so many wonderful organizations. I encourage everyone to not only join but also work hard to see that these organizations thrive. You will be blessed with life-long friendships. Volunteer! Volunteer!! Volunteer!!!"

Greetings From The Chamber President

As President of the Holden Chamber of Commerce, I would like to welcome everyone attending the annual Holden Street Fair to be held August 23-25, 2018. The Chamber takes great pride in hosting the annual Street Fair for friends, alumni, and members of the surrounding community. It is a time to celebrate everything that is great about living in a small town.

The theme this year is "Let the Fun Shine In!" We are planning three days of fun in the sun and under the stars. It is a time to enjoy events at the grandstand like the queen/king contests, musical performances or just sit and visit with old and new friends. Walk Second Street to enjoy the many food and souvenir booths by local businesses, civic groups and churches. And don't forget to continue to patronize our local businesses during the fair.

Outdoor activities include the 5K run, a horseshoe contest, the parade, and carnival rides. Or, cool off by enjoying the exhibits, shows, and baby contest at the Community Activity Center, or by playing bingo with the Optimist Club at the Hallar

Building.

All of this would not be possible without the hundreds of hours our volunteers have worked to prepare for this event. Our Chamber members, civic groups and churches have spent the past year planning for this event. Their tireless spirit is what makes the annual Street Fair a success.

More information about the Street Fair, including entry forms, can be found on the Holden Chamber website at www.holdenchamber.com.

On behalf of the Holden Chamber of Commerce I am pleased to invite everyone to join with family and friends to "Let the Fun Shine in!"

RANDOM ACCESS

Friday, August 24 • 6:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.
Downtown Grandstand

Random Access originally formed in 1987, in Kansas City. The group gigged in the metro area through the mid-1990s playing bars, private parties, weddings and events. The Random Access set list always includes a variety of classic rock, some newer material and a selection of country tunes, to round out a wide-ranging assortment of music. The group disbanded in 1995 to devote their time to their growing families.

By 2009 ... the kids were growing up and the band members were ready to take another shot at rock and roll. The band reformed, playing with the same passion, energy and excitement that defined our early years. Random Access thrives on bringing classic rock favorites to life and sharing our love of live music with audiences. With three members from the 1980's Random Access line up and an infusion of youth, in the form of a talented, young drummer, the band continues gig at bars, events and private parties throughout mid-Missouri and the K.C. metro area.

John Kennedy Lead Vocals / Rhythm Guitar

John Kennedy grew up admiring two older brothers who were musicians. By the time he reached high school, he was a devoted music fan and an aspiring singer. John joined Random Access in the late 1980s. Performing in and around Kansas City at bars and events proved to be a great rock and roll education. A fan of many genres of music, John says his vocals, "aim to do justice to the original songs, while keeping them fresh and entertaining for today's audiences."

Dave Williams Guitar / Bass / Vocals

Dave Williams is an original member of the band who brings a wide breadth of musical talent to the stage. While Dave enjoys 60s and 70s rock, you'll also find him playing country and more recent rock and roll hits. His versatility on guitar, bass and vocals has helped shape the character and sound of the four-piece Random Access.

Jeff Phipps Lead Guitar / Bass / Vocals

Jeff Phipps is a founding member of Random Access. Like the other musicians in the band, Jeff has a diverse musical background. His guitar playing began in his junior high days and he's never stopped since! When you're at a Random Access show you'll be able to identify Jeff by his melodic, blues inspired playing style and his incredible stage presence.

Matt Sekelsky Drums / Percussion

Matt enjoyed a musical childhood, as his father Michael J. Sekelsky was a professor of percussion at the University of Central Missouri. He pursued many areas of music growing up, including concert band, marching band and jazz band. Matt joined Random Access in 2015 as the full-time drummer, bringing a powerful and energetic drive to the band's sound. Matt's musical influence comes from classic rock drummers such as Joey Kramer of Aerosmith.

BIG SMITTY BAND

Saturday, August 25 • 6:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.

Downtown Grandstand

Shawn Smith a.k.a “Big Smitty”

Shawn Smith a.k.a “Big Smitty” humble beginnings were singing church hymns at his Dad’s Churches around the US. In 1990, Shawn’s brother, Larry, approached him about reforming the band, “Smith Brothers,” and going on the road. “Smith Brothers” had been a successful popular 80’s band with brothers Larry, Jeff and T-Ray. “Smith Brothers” signed with an entertainment group out of Omaha, Nebraska called Panco Entertainment Group for two years and traveled across the US performing. After 18 months, he returned to Joplin to play with many local bands. For the past 15 yrs., Smith has fronted the “Big Smitty Band.” Smith says he owes his success and durability to the great community, support of friends and family, and to all the great musicians who have played with him.

Scott Hill

Bringing the beat to Big Smitty’s rhythm section and lending a vocal hand is drummer Scott Hill. Scott is a Southwest Missouri native who began playing drums and percussion in the 5th grade. In 1978, Scott and his high school friends formed the Neosho Missouri based band City Limits playing numerous shows in the four-state area up until 1984. A job, bills, and a woman put plans of being a rock star on hold for the next 27 years. In 2011, Scott returned to play with City Limits at their 30-yr. high school reunion. He was hooked again! Scott enjoys all genres of music from classical to country; he is especially fond of any live music. “There is validation and a sense of pride when a crowd shows up and acknowledges what we do by tapping toes, dancing, singing along and putting their hands together.”

Waylon Schultz

Born in 1978 in the small town of Fredonia, Kansas, Guitarist Waylon Schultz lived out his childhood years in Carl Junction, Missouri. At the age of ten he got his first guitar for Christmas. At age fifteen he was the lead guitar player for a Christian rock band and at age seventeen he was hired to play lead guitar for Precious Moments in Carthage, Missouri. Three years later he joined the Duke Mason Band as lead guitarist and has been touring with him for 19yrs (and counting!) He also got to open for country artist Tracy Lawrence, perform at the Grand Palace in Branson, shared the stage with the legendary Jordanairs, The Emperials, Aaron Tippon, Josh Gracin and Gary Muledeer, to name a few. Waylon is now a proud endorser of Palir guitars out of Louisiana. . “It’s a joy to join with Shawn Smitty and the rest of the very talented band! Looking forward to playing some good music with these guys!”

Chase Hunter

Returning to the Big Smitty band with a fresh look and funky, slap style of bass is Chase Hunter. Chase has been in the music scene in many venues around the county and is most known in the Joplin area for his nearly 7-year stint with Big Smitty. He has also toured with Brad Paisley, Lenny Pickett, Phil Driscoll, and Gary Nichols and has a vast resume of headlining artists he has performed with.

But, he missed the comfort of his “family band,” Big Smitty. He returned to the Joplin-based band in late 2011 before taking a break from music for 2 years to be a dad to his daughter and son. He’s now back in action on the bass helping to bring a high energy, vast range of music and a crowd-pleasing priority to the band. “The goal for me is to make sure that no matter what kind of day, week, or month any one is having, to take to the stage and perform to give them some sort of relief from that sorrow or sadness so they can enjoy the thing that I have loved so much my entire life, music!”
