Maddy Fraioli will be our guest speaker at the next membership meeting.

Maddy will be giving a short presentation on her "other" creative outlet...rug hooking, which is an American Folk Art tradition. She will share a short Powerpoint of her last 20 years of textile work, some of the tools used in the process, and her current project, which is exploring repeat patterns using motifs inspired by the French artist, Raoul Dufy. http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Raoul_Dufy

Featured Artist: Rose Mary Honnald

RoseMary Honnold is the editor-in-chief of Voice of Youth Advocates (VOYA) Magazine and VOYA Press (<http://www.voyamagazine.com>); publications for librarians working with teenagers in school and public libraries. The author of five professional books for librarians and the editor of many more, she is a retired young adult librarian, having worked at Coshocton Public Library for twenty-five years. RoseMary relocated to Zanesville in 2012 after living in Coshocton for forty years. Making art was an occasional and "someday when I have the time" dream while raising her family and working. In recent years, she has dedicated more time and energy to pursuing and improving her art.

RoseMary is a first-year member of the Zanesville Appalachian Arts Project and of the Southeastern Ohio Watermedia Society, and is an Artist Friend of the Pomerene Center for the Arts in Coshocton, Ohio. She enjoys plein air painting in pastels, as well as studio painting in watercolor, oil, and acrylics. She enjoys all of them too much to focus on one! Many family members, former co-workers, and friends own her paintings, and she has sold several commissioned paintings.

From the Director's Desk

Could it be possible that spring is actually on its way? I certainly hope so, because this has been a longgggg winter.

Although I was unable to attend the March First Friday events I received many reports on it being a very successful and well attended evening. (that makes 2 Fridays in a row that the weather hasn't hampered people from getting out on the town)

My thanks go out to: *Christy Swope and Jenn Sands for decorating the window in the spirit of "Alice in Wonderland" , *Nick Malone from Shaniche books, *the "Mad Hatter" (Andy), "Queen of Hearts" (Christy), and "Alice" (Blair) for leaping from the pages to spend a few hours at the gallery, *Rose Mary Honnald our featured artist and *Crystal and Jane for beautifully hanging the show.

I am pleased to announce that member Jenn Sands will be opening a studio in our lower gallery. She is very excited to have a place to spread out and use her looms. Her sculpture boy friend will be sharing the space with her. They have already received keys and hope to move into the space ASAP.

I was recently informed by the staff at the Muskingum County Community Foundation that there will be a slight delay in reporting to ZAAP on the memberships they sponsored by our members attendance at the Ground Hog Auction. Also, calculations are still being made on the profits from art sales that are due ZAAP from member donations.

If you know of any member who is not receiving this newsletter and should be.. Please contact me.

The ZAAP Auction is right around the corner and we need everyone's help to make it a financial success. Please be generous in your donations of art and time to this cause. Publicity is crucial to generate a large crowd on May 2nd and competitive bidding.
