

NSBEA Scholarship Application for 2024-2025

GORDON F. CULVER $500 SCHOLARSHIP

All Documents Due by April 12, 2024

This scholarship is awarded to an undergraduate business education student or a student enrolled in a business transition to teaching program who will be student teaching/teaching during the 2024-25 school year. Students applying for this scholarship MUST be members of BOTH NSBEA and NBEA.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone Number: _____ E-Mail Address: _____

University Name: _____

When are you student teaching/teaching? _____

List the school name and cooperating teacher(s) names of where you are student teaching./teaching:

What is your current GPA? _____

NSBEA Membership Date Joined _____ NBEA Membership Number _____

(If you already are a member OR the date you mailed your membership.)

On separate sheets of paper, address the following four questions. Please limit each response to one typed, double-spaced page.

1. What extra-curricular activities have you been involved in? (Include offices held, honors won, memberships, etc.)
2. Financial need is one factor in the selection process. Briefly describe your financial situation.
3. Describe any experiences you have had dealing with teenagers/students.
4. Of all the careers available to you, why did you decide to become a business teacher?

Please send 1) all parts of this application, 2) a one-page resume, and 3) two letters of recommendation to:

Jimi Cole
601 W State Farm Road
North Platte, NE 69101
coleja@mpcc.edu

(Documents can be sent to the above email address. Indicate Gordon F. Culver Scholarship in the subject line)

The winner will be notified in May, and the scholarship will be awarded at the Nebraska Career Education Conference, June 3-6, 2024 in Kearney, Nebraska during the NSBEA Banquet.