WE PRAY FOR OUR FALLEN LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS & FAMILIES

Dear Lord, help these law enforcement officers to realize that they are imitating Your love when they risk their lives to help others. Remind them that there is no greater love than to lay down one's life for their friends. Amen.

The National Fraternal Order of Police reports that as of 2 July, there have been 179 officers shot so far in 2022, 33 of whom were killed by gunfire. There have been 38 ambush-style attacks on law enforcement officers this year, which have resulted in 60 officers shot, 15 of whom fatally injured.

AN INTERVIEW, POPE CONDEMNS ABORTION, SAYS HE'S NOT RESIGNING

VATICAN CITY (CNS) — Philip Pullella, the Reuters' Vatican correspondent

Asked about the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization June 24, a decision that stated there is no constitutional right to abortion in the United States, Pope Francis said he could not comment on the technicalities of the decision nor on Roe v. Wade, which it overturned.

"I don't really understand (the details of) the ruling 50 years ago, and now I can't say whether it did right or wrong from a judicial point of view. I respect the decisions," However, he said, abortion itself "is a problem." "I ask: 'Is it licit, is it right, to eliminate a human life to resolve a problem?' It's a human life — that's science," the pope said. "The moral question is whether it is right to take a human life to solve a problem. Indeed, is it right to hire a hit man to solve a problem?"

Asked about bishops denying Communion to Catholic politicians who publicly support abortion, Pope Francis would not get into specifics.

Instead, he repeated what he has said in the past when asked. "When the church loses its pastoral nature, when a bishop loses his pastoral nature, it causes a political problem. That's all I can say," he said.

Pope Francis was also asked about rumors that he was about to announce his resignation, rumors that found extra fuel when the pope announced he would create new cardinals in late August—a time when many Romans and Vatican officials take their summer break — and, especially, when he said he would travel Aug. 28 to the Italian city of L'Aquila, the burial place of St. Celestine V, a 13th-century pope who abdicated just a few months after his election. Before he resigned Pope Benedict had visited the tomb of St. Celestine.

Pope Francis told Reuters "All of these coincidences made some think that the same 'liturgy' would happen, but it didn't enter my head; it never entered my mind." "For the moment no, really. But when the time comes that I see that I can't do it (run the church, because of bad health) I will do it (resign)."

Pete Carter a seasoned member of the Saint Paul Catholic Center Finance Committee has been replaced by Mickie Bond effective this past week.

We thank Pete for his tenure and contribution to our ministries.

An updated Ministry roster will be published and posted in the very near future.

A LITTLE SUNDAY HUMOR! Provided by: Steve

★ A man asked his wife, "What would you do if I won the Lottery?" She replied, "I'd take half and leave you." Great he said, "I won $12, here's half...stay in touch!" ☺

★ I told my wife I wanted to be cremated. She made me an appointment for Tuesday!? ☺
