Call to Worship:

The Living God has brought us this far on our journey.
God has given bread to the hungry and rest to the weary.
God has shown us the future generations- the children in our midst.
And faithful to the divine promise, God has clothed us with salvation and joy. Amen.

Unison Prayer

O God, in mystery and providence you summon us to lives of pilgrimage, breaking new routes to destinations unforeseen. If we seek to love you, we cannot plan the course of our life in detail, but can only be guided by the mysteries of your direction – signposts that flare like a pillar of fire, lighting our path through the night. For the mysteries of our journey, we praise you, O God. Speak your Word of unexpected grace and wisdom to all who worship this day. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.

Amen.

Scripture Reading

2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

¹³ We have the same faithful spirit as what is written in scripture: I had faith, and so I spoke.^[a] We also have faith, and so we also speak. ¹⁴ We do this because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us with Jesus, and he will bring us into his presence along with you. ¹⁵ All these things are for your benefit. As grace increases to benefit more and more people, it will cause gratitude to increase, which results in God's glory. ¹⁶ So we aren't depressed. But even if our bodies are breaking down on the outside, the person that we are on the inside is being renewed every day. ¹⁷ Our temporary minor problems are producing an eternal stockpile of glory for us that is beyond all comparison. ¹⁸ We don't focus on the things that can be seen but on the things that can't be seen. The things that can be seen don't last, but the things that can't be seen are eternal. 5:1 We know that if the tent that we live in on earth is torn down, we have a building from God. It's a house that isn't handmade, which is eternal and located in heaven.
