

MADISON OLANDT

Class Teacher

Madison was born and raised in Thousand Oaks, California. She grew up as a high level gymnast, then, transitioned into dance upon joining Westlake High School Dance Team. As a soloist, she received West Coast Elite Dancer of the Year in 2012 and 2013.

Madison went to UCLA, where she studied Dance and Psychology. She studied under world renowned choreographers and dance pioneers.

Her love for choreography blossomed and some of her work was debuted in Pauley Pavilion, Gloria Kaufman Hall, and Royce Hall. While studying at UCLA, she choreographed and danced with Academy of Villains Contemporary Company, touring some of her work throughout China. She performed alongside Katy Perry at the Grammys in 2017, she was a season finalist on America's Got Talent with Diavolo Architecture in Motion, and is a contestant on World of Dance Season 3 with her dance partner Derion Loman. Her movement background includes that of tumbling and acrobatics, modern, partnering, contemporary, ballet, house, hip hop, and jazz funk.

She is thrilled to be a part of the Aspire Dance Staff!
