

TAW OUTREACH GRANT APPLICATION

The Tennessee Association of Woodturners is a not-for-profit 501c3 organization. The TAW exists to foster the art and craft of woodturning. It provides educational and networking opportunities for its members via symposiums, demonstrations, and scholarships. It has also supported local organizations such as Tennessee Craft and the Baptist Children's Home. The TAW desires to expand its outreach by providing increased support to other organizations that best align with the following criteria:

- Woodturning or woodworking related
- Educational and/or community service related
- Priority to youth organizations
- Priority to local/regional organizations
- Priority to organizations connected to TAW members

This application may be submitted by any TAW member on behalf of the recommended organization. Applications are accepted in March of each calendar year via email to secretary@tnwoodturners.org or delivered at the March TAW meeting to the TAW acting secretary. Partners will be selected and supported as determined by the TAW board, subject to available outreach funds for the current year.
