WINNSBORO HISTORY DAYS

FREE

WALKING TOUR, 3 SHORT DOWNTOWN BLOCKS
HISTORIC POINTS OF INTEREST • LIVE RE-ENACTORS

The Walking Tour begins at 10 a.m. at the Old Train Depot at the Southeast Corner of Main and Broadway (Also known as Hwy. 37 and Hwy. 11). Plenty of public parking at the Depot and around Downtown Winnsboro, Texas.

Bill Jones, city of Winnsboro official town Historian, will host a walking tour of downtown Winnsboro along Main Street, Elm and Market Street, assisted by narrator Randy Lindsey of KWNS Radio Station. The event is geared for featuring and preserving Winnsboro's unique history and heritage.

There will be about 12 points of interest stopping points along three downtown blocks. The tours hosts will be assisted by living historic actors in recreating a few scenes from famous points of history of the Crossroads town built at the headwaters of Indian Creek.

A few sidewalk acting scenes from criminals Bonnie and Clyde's Last Ride (peaceful) before they were gunned down in Louisiana, along with a few ghost stories, architectural building features, history and restoration award winning buildings. The "Outlaws" will re-enact the famous last 1907 Shootout killing the town Marshal and 3 others at Elm & the Bowery (Market Street).

Along the way, the walking tour will also stop for a short time at Vic Clark's Culture Club Art Gallery to view historic pictures of Winnsboro and the nice collection of art by many artists in the gallery. The walking tour continues outdoors during Winnsboro's renowned weekly Farmer's Market on Market (managed by Stacy Finley), and viewings of antique games, live blacksmithing, horse shoeing, and other activities of yesteryear.

The walking tour ends with a free light hors d'oeuvres Reception at the Winnsboro Center for the Arts at the Bowery at the corner of Market and Broadway (Hwy. 11). Folks are encouraged to shop downtown and in Winnsboro after the walking tour and dine in the area. Restaurants list at WINNSBOROTEXAS.ORG.
