

Boone County (shaded, at the top of the map) is where Ralph Ewing settled about 1855. Information found in the genealogy section of the library in Belvidere, Illinois, helped to locate the family graves in Cherry Valley cemetery. The courthouse in Belvidere has probate records and land records where additional information may be found regarding Ralph's will and his property in Flora Township, near Cherry Valley.