

SHERRY DOIL CARTER

Sherry Doil Carter has lived in Las Cruces for sixty-five years, graduating from NMSU with a BFA in Painting and Drawing in the early 70s. She has been a member of the Border Artist since the late 80s, exhibiting extensively throughout the southwest, she is a respected teacher of the arts at Alma d,arte Charter High School, and previously at Onate High School. Her work incorporates collage, printmaking, painting, sculpture, and mixed media. She operated her own art gallery The Adobe Horse for many years, combining her interest in Mexican antiques with contemporary fine art. She was also the curator for The White Raven Contemporary Art Gallery in Las Cruces, NM.