There is a set rule if you have difficulties. You are responsible for your own safety and you MUST be carrying and wearing all the compulsory equipment as laid out in the event rules. You MUST inform a marshal or race official if you have retired and you MUST return & download your dibber. Failure to comply will lead to instant event disqualification, in addition to any rescue fees incurred. If you are not back by one hour after closure of the course, we will inform Mountain Rescue. Solo runners are at particular risk. Please be extra careful and consider the risks to yourself and to others who may need to rescue you. If you or a member of your team is injured, be sensible and assess the whole situation. Use your whistle to summon assistance from other competitors. Put the casualty in a survival bag or shelter while someone, preferable two people, go for help. Someone should stay with the casualty at all times, although if you cannot summon help you may have to leave them on their own. Make a careful note of the grid reference, nearby features, time and nature of the injuries. Telephone the 24 hour emergency numbers shown on your map and ask for a suitable message to be passed to the Mountain Rescue team. If you cannot contact the event emergency numbers, please dial 112 (or 999 if that doesn't work) and ask for Mountain Rescue.
