

Today's Gospel narrative remembers Jesus' observation and reflection upon the generosity of the little people in His own day. Jesus pointed out the example of a poor widow who contributed to the Temple's charitable storehouse not from her excess, but from what she had to live on. Her generosity meant that she would have less to eat herself precisely in order that others would have at least something to live on. Jesus was subtly being critical of the wealthy, who though they knew of the needs of so many around them, were not as willing to share their 'fortune'. The widow was an example of one who gave out of justice, thankful for what she already had and who demonstrated that her genuine gratitude led to true compassion for others.

The widow of the Gospel had a generous heart, as did the widow in the 1st Reading. They looked outward to the needs of others and gave what they could. Can we not do the same? We may not have much money to spare, but we can give in others ways - we can give our time, our care and concern for others. Sally Koch said, "Great opportunities to help others seldom come but small ones surround us every day." This is shown in our contacts with family, neighbours, fellow workers, service people, our community. They are manifested in simple acts such as taking the time to play a game / read a book to our child ; acknowledging and thanking a spouse for simple tasks done to keep a house running ; taking a meal to a senior living by himself/herself ; offering to babysit for a single mother so she can have some time to herself or a young couple so they can go to a movie without the expense of a babysitter ; driving someone from a seniors' home to Mass each week ; complimenting service given by the clerk at the grocery store. We should never get tired of doing little things for others. Sometimes these little things occupy the biggest part of their hearts. These may seem like small acts but they are important in that they bring joy and hope to others. They show that we are trying to live as followers of Jesus seen by how we speak, how we act and in how we treat others. Service to others is the rent one pays for one's room here on earth.

Francis of Assisi once said , " Remember that when you leave this earth, you can take with you nothing that you have received - only what you have given - a full heart , enriched by honest service, love, sacrifice and courage." Let us be like the widows of the past as we generously share of our time and talents quietly giving of ourselves in gratitude to a God who gave His all for us.

ST. LAWRENCE O'TOOLE CENSUS

It has been over 10 years since a Parishioner Census has been done—in that time, many faces have changed! Besides getting your thoughts and input, the census is to update the parishioner list. Due to space restrictions, only Parishioners on the list or their blood relatives are permitted burial in St. Lawrence O'Toole Cemetery. There is potential of a Columbarium being installed, but the same restrictions will apply. Information received will not be published and your participation is completely voluntary. The bilingual forms will be distributed at the November 18th and 25th liturgies. Please return the completed forms to the sealed Census Box at the church entrance prior to December 16th.

YOUTH interested in meeting as a young member of the Catholic faith are asked to contact Pastoral Associate Charlie Farrell and let him know what activities and discussions you are interested in. The next gathering will be held in St. Augustine's Basement on Friday, November 23rd at 6:30 p.m. charlie.farrell@qasmoncton.com or 857-4223.

STORYTELLER AND EVANGELIST: THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

The First Sunday of Advent, the beginning of the Church's new liturgical year is rapidly approaching, during which we hear primarily from the Gospel of Luke. How is Luke's Gospel different from the other Gospels? What does Luke's story of Jesus tell us about our experience of Jesus? Help yourself have a better sense of the message Luke is sharing with us by joining Dr. Andrew Wilson at Holy Family Church Hall on Saturday, December 1st from 9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. as he takes an in-depth look at Luke and his Gospel. Dr. Wilson is associate professor of Religious Studies at Mount Allison University, and a frequent and popular presenter for the Office of Faith Development. Pre-registration is necessary by November 28th by contacting Ellen. Lunch is included.
