-------------	---------------

- No improvement needed, the teacher is nice and understanding, he is good at what he does too.
- He made the class pretty good for an 8 am. He taught the material in a very effective manner. He gave us the concepts, did a few examples, and expected us to practice.
- Dr. Lively uses time very efficiently. This course felt appropriately challenging.
- Harmonic dictation was a bit tough, so if strategies for approaching dictation were covered, that might make students more comfortable with the material.
- N/A
- While practice is the best way to get better at musicianship skills such as sight-singing and dictation, I wish there was more instruction or tips on what to look/listen for. While some people in this class have close to perfect/learned pitch, I walked in having never done any of this before and felt like I was at an extreme disadvantage. While others could easily listen to a melody and write it, I had no idea where to even begin. I eventually figured out, but maybe moving a little slower at the beginning would have been helpful.
- Professor Lively is a fantastic professor who knows what he is talking about and gets the job done. I truly understood what he was teaching and felt that his class really helped me further along with my music career.

- Love him
- No suggestions. Excellent class.
- I never once had a questions the expectations, my grade, or the material all year. Prof. Lively is incredibly clear, fair and knowledgable. He never gave us an assessment that was over our heads but he always challenged us. One of the best classes I've taken at SMU.
- For me the course was a bit repetitive as we focused on the same skills-harmonic and melodic dictation. It was too easy for me. However I will admit that I think I was placed into the wrong level course. Otherwise I enjoyed this class and the professor's energy and passion about music made it an enjoyable class. He is a great teacher and person!
- The professor was understanding of each person's individual skill set and strength and weaknesses. I feel like his grading was very fair, and the tests were reasonable.
- I'm a big fan of Dr. Lively.
- I liked everything, so I wouldn't change anything.
- Professor Lively is very open and fun to learn from. He's also very organized, to the point, and clear with his instructions. He definitely took the time to cater to each of the students individually and catered to their needs. Loved having him as a professor!
- Fantastic teacher. Very helpful in all aspects
- Lively is the best teacher ever!!! He's super organized, and his teaching methods and grading are great!

- No suggestions. Really loved it.
- Dr. Lively is a wonderful, energetic, kind teacher who brings life into the classes he teaches. His passion for music theory is contagious. He presents the material in a very clear and simple way that is easy to understand.
- The amount of homework was reasonable and helpful in preparing us for the weekly quizzes. I think having a quiz every week was a great use of time and reinforced the material that we were learning and allowed us to express our knowledge we were acquiring. The manner in which the professor presented the material was actually interesting and easy to understand, which is important in a subject like this.
- A little more guidance with the final project would have been appreciated, unless the whole point was to figure it out on our own. Then, success!
- The instructor was very good at making points clear and simple to understand. I liked everything so I would not change anything.
- Professor Lively is very open and fun to learn from. He's also very organized, to the point, and clear with his instructions. He definitely took the time to cater to each of the students individually and catered to their needs. Loved having him as a professor!
- Amazing teacher. Exceptional knowledge of subject including back ground info about random composers and styles. Always was able to answer even the most abstract question.
- Lively is the best theory teacher ever!!! Grading is great, he's super organized, and just super great!

- I have no reason to complain about way in which the instructor taught this course. I very much enjoyed this class. It was challenging and artistically satisfying. I highly recommend this teacher as an A+ type of teacher. I would be happy to study with him again sometime. May he have a very blessed career and life in the future! In Christ
- Lively is a good teacher
- he was great
- Lively is very knowledgeable and thinks deeply about the subject. Often times this thinking resulted in changes of opinion mid-class, making the material more ambiguous than they inherently are. Assignments and tests were rarely challenging, because answers were given the day before and essentially copied onto the the assignment.
- I learned the most from the final project, and I think that's because I was forced to figure out and analyze a piece entirely on my own. Dr. Lively is a great teacher - always understandable, approachable, encouraging - but he spoonfeeds a little bit. I love how relatively low-maintenance this class was, because I still felt like I learned. But he could expect more.
- I feel that there is not enough material in this course to go over in a semester. This course could be taught in the span of three weeks. Perhaps this course should be merged into Contemporary Analysis. The professor did not seem prepared for lecture. I understand that this subject material is one that lends itself to different interpretation, however I felt that the professor had not done enough analysis on his own to be able to explain to students how he came to his conclusions.
- Dr. Lively was energetic, excited, and prepared for every class. He brought in the Escher Quartet to play for us, which was an enriching experience. He treated all of his students with kindness and respect, which I appreciated. Wonderful class!

- The instructor did a fine job. It would be nice to have a bit more notice on teaching assignments.
- Being observed when teaching can sometimes be an awkward situation but Dr. Lively's kind demeanor makes the scenario less unsettling. The feedback I received in response to my teaching was helpful and valuable information. Meetings with Dr. Lively were always a positive and productive experience.
- This course was really disorganized. I wish there was more communication
