My dear brothers-and-sisters-in-Christ (and you are very dear to me),

Praise the Lord! Can you believe that the year is quickly coming to a close? The holiday season is just around the corner. We seniors want to let you know our plans as soon as possible because we want you to be a part of them. We will keep you informed beginning with this newsletter and continuing in coming newsletters. Read on.

✂ September's meeting: The meeting was wonderful. As usual, the seniors, with the Lord's inspiration, surpassed my expectations with suggestions and strategies for "street ministry," a tract ministry and purchasing Bibles for young people. As our plans solidify, there will be more information in this newsletter.

✂ Alden-Wentworth - Thursday, October 26th - 10:30 A.M. - 11:30 A.M.:
It gets better, and better, and better! At our service in September, we and our brothers and sisters at A.W. had such a good time! A new sister, with the most angelic looking face, did one of the musical specials accompanied by Sis. Willie Randle. It was "When the Storms of Life Are Raging, Stand by Me." She started it on her own, and Willie joined her. An aide let us know that she is a relative of Sam Cooke. When we were saying our good-byes, she encouraged us to keep on with our ministry. She said that her father had been a pastor. Our brothers and sisters are becoming more and more communicative. This is truly a blessing from God because they are in different stages of dementia, but they have not forgotten how to praise their God. Min. Ardie Davis preached on "The God We Serve!" using verses from Deuteronomy 10:12-22. He concentrated on Verse 12. He finished his sermon listing the attributes of God. We and our brothers and sisters rejoiced!

Remember: You are always welcome to join us at Alden-Wentworth!

✂ Explore Biblical & Black History: (See attached.)

✂ Born To Die: It's that time again. Attached you will find information about rehearsals and performances. I can only say what I have been saying for the past seven years: I invite you because I want you to receive a blessing. I don't know anyone who has attended a service who has not been blessed. YOU WILL BE BLESSED! (See attached.)

✂ Dues: Dues are still just $2.00 per month - $24.00 per year. Benevolence fund: $5.00 per year

The Usher Board of VPCOG is recruiting ushers. If you are interested, just ask an usher. They will tell you what to do.

"A merry heart doeth good like a medicine..."Prov. 17:22a

Two yuppettes were being observed in a parking lot. They were working with a coat hanger and a locked Mercedes. Soon the first girl said, "Hurry up! It's starting to rain, and the top is down!"

"I got this great new hearing aid the other day." "Are you wearing it now?" "Yes. Cost me four thousand dollars, but it's top of the line." "What kind is it?" "Twelve-thirty."

Jimmy and Johnny, panting and pulling on their tandem bicycle, finally reached the top of a long, steep hill. "Whew!" gasped Jimmy. "What a climb!" "Sure was," agreed Johnny. "If I hadn't kept the brake on, we'd have gone down backward."

A man and a woman are standing at a cocktail party when the woman remarked, "You know...you look like my third husband." "How many times have you been married?" asked the man. "Twice!" replied the lady.

Hope to see you at the meeting.

I love you all; I really do,

JOSIE
