

Millard Law

Millard Law was born in Marthaville, La. on November 16, 1912 and was raised in Oil City, La.

As a child of the depression era, his life was shaped by the hardships of being oldest of five children and raised by a widowed mother. Early on he learned of responsibility and an enduring work ethic. He never forgot the kindness and help from neighbors and friends during those years.

Because of his early life he too became a generous man to others by quietly sharing his time, finances and service in many ways. He served his Lord by working in his church in many capacities, most notably as a deacon and treasurer for over fifty years.

Mr. Law was preceded in death by his wife of sixty-one years Katherine, siblings Kitty Green, Jim Law, John Law and nephew Jimmy Law.

He is survived by a daughter, Patsy Hartzog and husband Jerry, grandsons Todd and Jerred and sister Janie Law.

Visitation will be held in Mr. Law's home Sunday March 21, from 2-5 PM. Services will be held Monday March 22 in the First Baptist Church of Oil City, with Rev: Chad Mills and Rev: Frank Carroll officiating. Interment will be in Lakeview Memorial Gardens

Pallbearers will be Lance and Lane Alexander, Terry, Mike and Gill Beck and Doug Self. Honorary Pallbearers will be deacons of his church. Family would like to extend a special thanks to the EMTs of Oil City Fire Dept. Dr. John Haynes and the staffs at North Caddo Medical Center, E.R., Whispering Pine Nursing Home and special sitters.
