

Celebrating excellence in supporting people with learning disabilities

Friday 15th May 2015 at The ICC, Birmingham

ABOUT THE AWARDS

The National Learning Disabilities Awards celebrate excellence in the support for people with learning disabilities and aim to pay tribute to those individuals or organisation who excel in providing quality care. There are a total of 15 award categories available for nomination, which represent all areas of care for people with learning disabilities within the care sector, whether it be young or older people, supporting people in their own homes, the residential care sector or the voluntary sectors. From frontline staff such as care workers and care managers to people who have made an impact in other ways such as training and innovation.

THE GALA EVENT

All the finalists will be invited to purchase a table at a spectacular gala dinner where the winners will be announced.

The National Learning Disabilities Show

Prior to the awards we there will be an exhibition and conference. The event will showcase the latest products, services and innovations for the learning disabilities sector. Delegates will be exposed to an innovative and exciting speaker programme with interactive workshops and the latest products on display throughout the day. The aim is to achieve positive solutions for achieving excellence.

As an exhibitor at The National Learning Disabilities Show you will be given the opportunity to showcase your products and services to other traders and also key decision makers in the care sector. This includes; commissioners from local authorities and care associations, fellow traders, managers, directors, care operators, senior nursing staff, financial directors, CEOs, purchasing officers through to the people who use the service throughout the social care sector. It is an opportunity to promote your services with interactive sessions in which delegates and exhibitors can participate.
