PHASE I-Application/criteria

PHASE II-Implementation/awarding

PHASE-III-Tracking

As soon as the above guidelines are completed, meetings with appropriate county entities will be held, explaining the process to apply and other information.

Entity applying will need to list other federal/state funds received for CoVid-19 relief. (No double dipping).

Funds will be available until December 31, 2020, so need to stretch funding to cover until end of year in case a need arises later.

Commissioners will be in charge of making distribution decisions.

Treasurer to set up separate account for these funds.

Want to be sure the financial needs of Pike County are met legally.
