

Meet our Speakers !

Tami DiCostanzo

Deirdre Ryan-Spirakis

Deirdre Ryan-Spirakis and Tami DiCostanzo are Project Directors with the AmeriCorps Seniors RSVP program in New York City, where they mobilize volunteers aged 55 and older to address critical needs through service to their communities.

Together they have over 50 years of volunteer management experience and lead the largest AmeriCorps Seniors RSVP program in the country with 2300 + volunteers. Deirdre oversees the volunteer activity in Brooklyn, Queens, Manhattan, and the Bronx, while Tami's focus is in Staten Island. They have a wealth of experience in the field of volunteer training, volunteer management and volunteer engagement. In addition to training and workshop experience on the topics of recruiting and retaining volunteers, they have expertise in fundraising, grant writing, program evaluation, event management, data collection and program development.

AmeriCorps Seniors RSVP connects adults, 55 and older with volunteer opportunities that allow them to share their 'lifetime of experience' with organizations and programs that improve our communities. The program is funded by AmeriCorps, the federal agency for national service and volunteerism, brings people together to tackle the country's most pressing challenges. AmeriCorps members and AmeriCorps Seniors volunteers serve with organizations dedicated to the improvement of communities. In New York City, AmeriCorps Seniors RSVP is sponsored by the Community Service Society.
