

Nancy Ellis-Hines

A native New Mexican, Nancy-Ellis Hines began exploring various art forms when she retired from teaching high school English twenty years ago. She views herself as an assemblage artist working primarily with fabric, paper, metal, and found objects.

