Old Business

- The offer to co-host a clinic at Jamee Bornstein's facility was turned down.
- Items for the youth goodie bags should be donated or purchased from sponsorships.
- Club ad in the Journal will continue. Those participating will be paying up thru Dec 2020.
- The offer from Jamee Bornstein to do 2020 show sponsorships was turned down. Edna Wood made a motion to have Sheila Steinfeldt continue to do the show sponsorships for the 2020 show, Gary Price 2nd the motion. Motion approved.
- Spring Clinic was discussed. Carriage clinic with speakers from AMHR and ADS backgrounds on Saturday. Private lessons on Sunday. Amy Price is making arrangements with the speaker/trainer for a May Clinic. Amy & Gary Price will host the clinic at their facility. Non-members will be charged $30 for the clinic. Once details are finalized, the club will send out emails, update on their website and post on social media.

New Business

2020 Show

- Discussion on changing from the glass bottles to a bottle of fly spray or grooming spray. Many liked the look of the glass bottles. The concern was that they were hard to manage and there was fear of breaking them in transport. It was suggested to do an assortment of glass bottles and the grooming sprays and give the award winner the choice. Amanda Steinfeldt will be contacting manufacturers to see what she can get donated.
- Food
 - o Steinfeldt's will donate the judge's snacks and drinks
 - o S Bar P will donate and host the Friday Night Dinner
 - o Steph Coffey will donate and host one of the morning breakfast
- Edna Wood has volunteered to manage and run the silent auction once again.
- The raffle was brought up, no discussion.
- Classes
 - o Amanda Steinfeldt made a motion to add a roadster stakes to the class list, Clark Wood 2nd the motion. Motion approved.
 - o Kelly Lynch requested to have NSPPR (National Sport Performance Pony Registry) classes added to the class list; Halter, Halter Grand and Pleasure Driving. Edna Wood made a motion to keep the AAMHC show an AMHR show only, Connie Boldt 2nd the motion. Motion approved.
