JAMES "SUNNY JIM" WHITE

James "Sunny Jim" White is a singer songwriter who performs original music with a tropical flair. Based in Southwest Florida, he lives in Osprey, a hamlet on Little Sarasota Bay. Before settling in the sunshine state in 2001, Sunny Jim spent twelve years in the Cayman Islands where he absorbed Caribbean influences and easily adapted a laid-back island lifestyle. His songs are a blend of influences developed through stints in Texas, the West coast and the Caribbean. His live performances include guitar, steel pan, vocals and backup tracks, and calling up sea breezes, palm trees, sandy beaches and tropical vibes. It was in the Caribbean that James picked up his moniker, Sunny Jim.

15 LAKESHARKS ATTENDED MEETING OF THE MINDS 2023

This was the first time meeting of the minds was held in Gulf Shores, and PHiP has already committed to Gulf Shores for 2024. The one big difference from Key West - “lots of ground to cover to see favorite artists and events”, but fortunately, there was plenty of free parking except at the Hangout (the main venue.) Speaking of the Hangout - the folks there were very friendly and did a great job of serving us Parrot Heads. The Hangout stage, sound system and jumbo video screen were excellent. Thanks to all the LakeSharks who attended. Hope to see even more members in Gulf Shores in 2024.

MEETING OF THE MINDS EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Fly the Beach

On the way to Gulf Shores, Amy and I stopped at Destin for my FAA required flight review (got to do it every two years.) The flight operation is called Fly the Beach - which we did. Rose administered the ground school portion and Ryan did the flight portion. Lots of landings in the Choctawhatchee Bay and on sand runways. Also had a little extra time for sightseeing flights near the beaches facing the Gulf. Fun fact - there is a fine line of being far enough away from the condos to get a nice wave from the folks, and being so close that you get the one finger salute! Four and a half hours later and I'm good for another two years.

5K SKIPPIN AND SIPPIN FUN RUN/WALK

Amy and Marilyn thought it would be a great idea to get up early to do a 5K run/walk after partying late the night before. This event was for a great cause - to support local patients battling breast cancer. Turns out that Erv Cliff placed first for males in his age group, Marilyn Cliff placed first for females in her age group and John Howard placed third for males in his age group. Not bad with considering there were 204 participants! Oh - Amy did mention something about there being an "extremely" small number of entrants in the age groups for Erv, Marilyn and John - a small but semi important detail. LOL

CHRISTMAS DONATIONS

We have completed buying toys and books for our 80 kiddos at RCMA and are scheduling a special visit with Santa for them. Christmas gift baskets will be created for the 5 Ridge area ARC adult group homes for their 30 residents (this is the group we won the "Hero" award from). Additionally, we have put in our request to sponsor four Highland's County Schools families in need. A flyer will be sent out ASAP when we get a breakdown of what is needed so please watch your email. I know the turn around times seem fast but LakeSharks are Ninjas!!
