John - The Forerunner of Christ

In the Catholic tradition, besides Mary & Jesus, John is the only one who the Church celebrates his birthday on the liturgical calendar. Normally, the Church celebrates the day the saint died. During Advent Season, John the Baptist is mentioned in the Gospel as the one who preaches about getting ready for the Lord, "Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way. A voice of one crying out in the desert: 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths.'" (Mk 1: 2-3) Mark quotes Isaiah to mention John as someone who is called by God to be a messenger for the coming of Christ. John stayed in the desert, prayed and fasted. He preached in the desert, a desolate place where no one was around, so his voice echoed back to himself in silence. The message of repentance and forgiveness of sin bounced back to his very heart. Thus, he found his true vocation as the one who was called to prepare God's people for the Messiah, and realized clearly who the Messiah is. The people came to him asking for baptism and claimed him as the Messiah, but he insisted he was not the One, "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." (Mk 1: 7-8) Like John, we pray that we have enough grace to listen to the message of repentance and realize who we are and who God is so that we may be able to straighten our paths for the coming of the Messiah, the One to come.

Advent Colors - Violet & Rose

The Church uses the same colors of Advent and Lenten seasons to remind us of the meaning of greater celebrations that are coming. Purple or Violet are colors of pain, suffering, and penitence. These may symbolize the meaning of the Lenten Season when we prepare to commemorate the passion of Jesus and celebrate his Resurrection.

Children's Liturgy of the Word will be at 8:00am Mass.

Children from 3-6 years old are invited.

We are looking for volunteers in this ministry if your interested, please contact Kimly Hoang.

St. Benedict's

St. Benedict's Needs Volunteers!!

Currently, there is a team of 12 volunteers that feed 64 men on the 3rd Thursday of each month. This may be the only meal that a person eats that day. We really need more people to join this ministry as not everyone is available each month.

We have selected menus that we use and usually this means a casserole or dish of food is needed from each volunteer.

Please contact: Linda Dixon at 270-929-6633 or Bonnie Castlen at 270-313-4136 if you are interested in volunteering.

SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMITTEE

Saint Damasus | December 11

Saint Damasus served as bishop of Rome for 18 years as Pope Damasus I (366-384). He had to endure significant controversy early in his pontifical reign when a factional group of bishops insisted that their chosen claimant, Ursinus, was the true pope. Both sides resorted to violence before the issue was decided in favor of Damasus. He went on to make the unification of the Church a central focus of his papacy and fervently fought to counter any division caused by the many heretical teachings of his time.

While he was pope, Christianity was declared the official religion of the Roman Empire and Rome's authority in the Church was decided by a synod that Damasus called in 382. This synod established Rome as the direct descendant of the Church founded by the apostle Saint Peter, the apostolic see, and put an end to confusion stemming from Constantinople, which some were already calling 'The New Rome'.

To further unify the Church, Damasus introduced Latin as the principle liturgical language and commissioned his secretary, Saint Jerome, to compile and revise the various translations of the Bible into one official translation to be used by the entire Church: The Latin Vulgate. This successfully preserved the original Scriptures by making them more accessible to the average Christian.

A writer and poet himself, Saint Damasus lives on in history through his many epigrams and verse inscriptions that can be found on the Roman catacombs that he restored during his papacy. ©LPi
