

AMANDA MARTZ

Apprentice Instructor

Amanda started dancing at the age of three, and her love of dance was born. Since then, she has trained in Tap, Ballet, Pointe, Jazz, Hip Hop, Contemporary, Musical Theater, and Modern, however, her favorite is Tap. As a member of Aspire Dance Studio's Competitive Company, she has received numerous awards and scholarships, including early acceptance into AMDA (American Musical and Dramatic Academy) College.

Amanda also has a huge love for choreography, and was honored to receive a Choreography Award from ASH Performance Showcase for her work.

When not at the studio, she dances with No Filter: Sole Talk Tap Company, Merge Movement Collective, The Dance Ensemble at Santa Susana Performing Arts Magnet, and is a Faculty Assistant touring with Revel Dance Convention.

After being a Teacher's Assistant here at Aspire for four years, she is very excited to start her teaching career at the studio that taught and shaped her into the dancer she is today.

Amanda plans to earn her BFA in Commercial Dance and travel the World performing, teaching, and choreographing all styles of dance.
