

Professor Troy Shehorn

Professor Troy Shehorn began his study of Danzan Ryu Jujitsu, at the Medford Judo Academy (Medford, OR), under Professor Larry Nolte in 1976. He is a graduate of the American Judo & Jujitsu Federation Massage Course and was a licensed Massage Therapist in the State of Oregon

Professor Shehorn received his Danzan Ryu Professorship from the Pacific Jujitsu Alliance in 2010 and from the American Judo & Jujitsu Federation in 2015. In 2014 he was promoted to the rank of Shichidan by the Pacific Jujitsu Alliance. He is a graduate of multiple K.I.T.W. courses and holds the title of Master Combat Knife Instructor.

He was presented with the 2015 Professor Ray Law Award by the American Judo & Jujitsu Federation. He was also presented with the 2015 Instructor of the Year Award by the Kilohana Martial Arts Association

Professor Shehorn is a member of the Pacific Jujitsu Alliance, Kilohana Martial Arts Association, Shoshin Ryu Yudanshakai and the American Judo & Jujitsu Federation.