

Discipline

Effective Discipline

When performance is not up to standard, what do you do? Participants will explore the basics of an effective disciplinary system. Participants in this course will focus on communicating standards, providing feedback and identifying consequences that will get results. There is more involved in taking corrective action than dispensing penalties.