All payments made via credit card will incur a 4% surcharge per transaction. SC ARTISTRY does not accept Cheques or Money Orders 3. No refund for course fees paid - it is the policy of SC ARTISTRY NOT to issue refunds for any course fees paid. The enrolled student/financier acknowledges that these arrangements are reasonable having regard to the difficulties of enrolling cancelled places at such short notice and the significant costs incurred administering cancelled enrolments. Students are however, able to reschedule for future course dates within 12 months with written notice. 4. 21 days before a course completes the enrolled student/financier is required to fulfill their financial obligations and pay the entire course fees even if they do not or can not complete the course for ANY reason. 5. No enrolments can be deferred for longer than 12 months. 6. Course fees are not transferable. 7. SC ARTISTRY reserves the right to cancel, postpone or reschedule courses at the discretion of the Director. 8. In the event a class is cancelled, students would be offered a refund or alternatively a transfer to an alternate course date. 9. SC ARTISTRY reserves the right to change (within the Trade Practices customisation guidelines) course delivery structure. 10. Upon enrolment students are required to commit to and attend all scheduled hours as well as meet the required standard upon assessment, to qualify for an Industry Recognised Certificate. 11. SC ARTISTRY reserves the right to exclude and/or expel students from the course who fail to meet minimum course requirements, which are further outlined within the Student Handbook. 12. The enrolled student has a duty to disclose in writing to SC ARTISTRY any illness, disability and/or learning difficulty that may affect their academic performance. We are bound by the Privacy Act and therefore such information will only be disclosed to relevant personnel for purposes of general student administration, planning and communication. 13. All applications, appeals and complaints must be received and recorded in writing accompanied by sufficient and valid evidence to substantiate the application, complaint or appeal. Any authorised changes to your enrolment following a written appeal will incur a fee, please refer to the student handbook or contact the education department for further information before enrolling, at makeup@scartistry.com.au. 14.
