

EXPLORING OUR FAITH

"What good is it if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you?" In these words James teaches that faith must be demonstrated by works. The basic idea is, what is the good of going to church then walking out and not 'doing' anything in between attendance at Mass? In the second reading, James also says, "Someone will say, "You have faith and I have works. Show me your faith apart from your works and I by my works will show you my faith."

Pope Francis has stated, "When faith is lived and shown in service to others then many doubts vanish because we feel the presence of God and the truth of the Gospel in the love that, by no merit of ours, lives in us and that we share with others."

The "works" that we can show as an example of our faith can be simple acts of support and encouragement, shown quietly and unobtrusively. It can manifest itself through an understanding smile, a willingness to listen patiently for a couple of minutes during a busy day, being unwilling to spread gossip/rumors about others, an encouraging word, treating each other with respect and dignity. You don't necessarily have to 'schedule' love/faith though. It should be a reflex - a natural act. Small, seemingly mundane, things can have an extraordinary significance. One doesn't have to fly to a foreign country and play with children less fortunate...just be faithful in the little things. Simple "works" demonstrate our Catholic faith in action in our lives.

Faith is technically a noun, but in reality it is a verb - a call to action. Faith isn't faith unless it is expressed and lived. When you exhibit your faith in the little things as well as the big things in life two things happen: 1) your faith grows. When you see faith in action you can't help but want more action. 2) others can't help but notice. When you live your faith, people notice. When people notice, your faith and your works are a testimony to the Good News of the Gospel. When that happens, you have faith in God and are faithful to Him.

Faith requires a steady, daily dependence on the character and teachings of God. It is a long-term commitment. Keeping faith is about community also. The Christian life is not lived exclusively between God and the individual; it is lived in community with others, in our daily contacts with family, friends, co-workers, service people, etc. With these "works" we can keep the faith by remembering God's faithfulness and continuing to grow in relationship with Him. With His help we can be examples of a people "who, by our works, will show you our faith."

Kids in Scouts have fun adventures discovering new things and experiences they wouldn't have elsewhere. Along the way, kids develop into capable, confident and well-rounded individuals, better prepared for success in the world. Scouts is the start of something great.

To enroll youth in an exciting outdoor adventure or find out more information on how to register your child (ages 5 to 15) in St Michael's Scout Group contact Darlene at photobug2010@hotmail.com

Are you someone who enjoys seeing children (and even adults) learn about our faith? If so, then our Family Faith program is just the place for you. We are currently in need of volunteers to help us with different areas of our program in order to provide our families with a wonderful experience of learning about our faith. There are many ways to help out during the sessions from handing out snacks and various papers/supplies for activities, setting up tables & chairs or even just lending an ear to a child or adult that may need to be heard. Or, if you want, you can even facilitate the session which is fully prepared and provided to you ahead of time to look over so you are aware of what to do.

We are currently in need of both helpers & facilitators for our sessions on Sunday mornings & Tuesday evenings. Both of these positions are an essential part of providing an atmosphere for our families to learn about their faith while having fun. So, if this sounds like the place for you and you can spare about 2 hours twice a month on Sunday before or after mass or Tuesday evening, please contact me at eileen.caissie@gasmoncton.com so we can find the right place for you.

And remember – no experience necessary. Only willing hands and an open heart....Many thanks,

Eileen

GRIEF AND PRAYERS— In light of the sad and disturbing revelations concerning the abuse of minors by members of the clergy, I feel it is necessary to have an evening where we can express our individual and collective grief. Along with the obvious pain and long-lasting harm experienced by the victims themselves, we are all carrying some pain. Please join us this Monday, September 17th at 7:00 p.m. at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church where, through grief sharing and ritual, we will try to create a forum to express our disappointment, frustration, shame, and even anger over the harm done to so many young people over the years. We will also lift up our bruised and battered Church to God seeking forgiveness and healing. And lastly, we will give thanks to God who, through the Spirit of his Risen Son, has promised, "I am with you until the end of the ages."

If you, or someone you know, is interested in exploring the possibility of becoming a member of our Catholic faith community, then RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) may be for you! However you come, our parish community welcomes you! You may already have a strong relationship with God, or you may be seeking such a relationship. You may have had some connection with the Catholic Church or other faith traditions, or you may be seeking a new relationship. RCIA invites you to begin a journey of faith with a group of Catholics who are members of this parish community, and with other men/women who are exploring whether the Catholic faith is right for them. The people of Queen of All Saints offer you support in your search for a deeper relationship with God lived out through the Catholic church. Contact the parish office at 857-4223 if you are interested in more information.
