

Type 1 Motorsports is constantly reminded of the daily challenge ahead of them. The night prior to Round 5, Kyle's blood sugar dropped to a very dangerous low of 42. Kyle and The Type 1 Team prove teamwork is always the answer! Type 1 Diabetes does not slow Kyle or The Type 1 Team down, proven in Rounds 5&6: Kyle had a slight advantage over the field with a 5 point lead. Looking to extend his lead Kyle knew finishing was important and getting top 5 points would help him sustain his lead.

As Round 5 kicked off Kyle patiently waited in 2nd place, planning his moves and his overall strategy. The pressure of this high energy race was too much for most of the racers, noticeable by the errors made giving the lead to Kyle. Kyle seized his opportunity and took and kept the lead, adding round 5 to extend his point lead.

Round 6 would have Kyle start on the front row, where he methodically clicked away the laps flawlessly from start to finish. Adding another win to this young drivers career. Kyle has now stretched his point lead and is working hard to keep this momentum going into this weekends race at Glen Helen for the Lucas Oil So-Cal Regional Series, where he has a 25 point lead.

Kyle feels that Type 1 Diabetes will not slow him down, and neither will low blood sugar. The Type 1 Team knows Diabetes is a disease that affects the whole family. Whether you're a parent, sibling or other family member, your support and understanding can make all the difference. There are 1.4 million Americans diagnosed with diabetes every year, and 86 Million Americans diagnosed with pre diabetes in 2012 alone.
