December 24, 2017 Fourth Sunday in Advent

“Now there were shepherds in that region living in the fields and keeping the night watch over their flock. The angel of the Lord appeared to them and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were struck with great fear. The angle said to them, “Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was a multitude of the heavenly host with the angel, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests.””

“Ahora había pastores en esa región viviendo en los campos y cuidando de la noche a su rebaño. El ángel del Señor se les apareció y la gloria del Señor brilló alrededor de ellos, y ellos fueron golpeados con gran temor. El ángulo les dijo: “No tengan miedo; porque he aquí, os anuncio buenas nuevas de gran gozo que serán para todo el pueblo. Porque hoy en la ciudad de David ha nacido un salvador para ti que es Cristo y Señor. Y esto será una señal para ti: encontrarás un niño envuelto en pañales y acostado en un administrador. “Y de repente hubo una multitud del ejército celestial con el ángel, alabando a Dios y diciendo:” Gloria a Dios en el la paz más alta y en la tierra a aquellos a quienes le corresponde su favor “.”

A light shall shine upon us this day: for the Lord is born to us: and He shall be called Wonderful, God, the Prince of Peace, the Father of the world to come: of whose reign there shall be no end.

Una luz brillará sobre nosotros este día: porque el Señor nos ha nacido; y se llamará Maravilloso, Dios, Príncipe de paz, el Padre del mundo venidero, de cuyo reino no tendrá fin.

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, for our Savior has been born in the world. Today true peace has come down to us from heaven.

Regocijémonos todos en el Señor, porque nuestro Salvador ha nacido en el mundo. Hoy la verdadera paz nos ha llegado del cielo.

Dear Parishioners:

Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord. On behalf of the Parish of St. Anthony I want to wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

It is a joy to pause and thank you, but most of all, thank our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for his many Blessings.

Wishing you a Christmas bright with blessings, warm with love, the kind of joyful season that you are so deserving of. The best gifts are family and friends. I hope this season is full of family time, joy, hope and thankfulness.

Christmas is a feast of light. Beginning in the fourth century many fathers recognized the symbolic value of the fact that for them, the days grew longer after the feast of the Nativity. The readings and prayers for the various Christmas liturgies underscore the theme of the true Light who comes to us in Jesus Christ. The first preface for Christmas exclaims, addressing God the Father, “For in the mystery of the Word made flesh a new light of your glory has shone upon the eyes of our mind.”

On the Octave Day of Christmas, Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God, the readings are about the Virgin Mother of God and the giving of the holy name of Jesus. The celebration of the New Year provides an occasion to give thanks for the blessings of the year just ended and to pray that in the year ahead we, like Mary, will cooperate with God in the ongoing mission of Christ. I wish you as well a Happy New Year. Hopefully this new year be for you full of health, and happiness.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all of you. Fr. Juan
