

STAFF BIO:

Brittany Engle

Brittany is a resident of Easton, MA and graduated from Oliver Ames High School in 2006. She was captain of the girls' varsity basketball team that went on to win the Division 2 State Championship in 2006. A Hockomock League All-Star for three years in basketball and two in lacrosse, she eclipsed both the 1,000 point mark in her senior season of basketball and the 150 goal mark in her senior season of lacrosse. In 2006 she was named Brockton Enterprise Player of the Year, Massachusetts Coaches' South Sectional Player of the Year, Boston Globe and Boston Herald Super Team, and Oliver Ames Scholar Athlete of the Year. Later attending Marist College (Poughkeepsie, NY) on a basketball scholarship, the Red Foxes earned an NCAA Division 1 Tournament berth in each of her four seasons. In her freshman season (2006-2007), Marist defeated Ohio State and Middle Tennessee State en route to a Sweet Sixteen appearance against the #1 seeded, and eventual national champion, Tennessee Lady Vols. The following season, the Red Foxes were ranked 22nd in the USA Coaches Poll and ended their season in the 2nd round of the NCAA Tournament after losing to LSU. Marist was ranked as high as 20th in the nation during her tenure. She was also a member of the Metro-Atlantic Athletic Conference All-Academic team in 2007-2008. She graduated from Marist in 2010, summa cum laude, with a BA in Communications/Public Relations and a Business Administration cognate. After working as the Director of Evolution Sports Performance for 3 years, Brittany became a member of the Oliver Ames Girls Basketball coaching staff as the varsity assistant for the 2015-2016 season. Brittany is now pursuing a career in teaching and coaching.

