Bette Davis

Few actresses in the history of film rival her longevity and appeal. In such classic films as Jezebel, Dark Victory, Nom, Voyager, and All About Eve, Bette Davis created a new kind of film heroine: strong, powerful, romantic and even wicked.. This witty, sharp historical portrayal reveals Davis as the ultimate star in the golden age of Hollywood.

Gone With the Wind* : The Making of a Hollywood Legend

Eighty years after its blockbuster premiere in 1939, Gone with the Wind remains the all-time Hollywood box-office champion. American Film Institute members voted it the most popular film of all time. This lecture explores the film's history, including the search for Scarlett O'Hara, the pioneering special effects, and the perfectionistic drive of producer David O. Selznick.

Grace Kelly

Few lives seemed so much like a movie. The beautiful movie star swept off her feet by a real-life prince. Grace Kelly's fairytale wedding to Prince Rainier of Monaco in 1956 made her a princess. But beneath her cool, gracious smile, Grace Kelly yearned for her father's approval and worked hard as a wife and mother. In this historical portrayal, Goddard portrays the woman who transformed from movie star to princess.
