GET TO KNOW SARAH

Sarah is a 22-year-old, first-year graduate student at Fontbonne University in St. Louis, so she is new to the Missouri area! She loves softball and wants to get back into giving lessons as she has in the past. Her favorite aspect of the game to teach is slapping, but she believes everyone should know how to hit well and loves teaching both. She is also open to giving either infield and outfield instruction, as she has played utility for nearly her entire softball career. Besides softball, Sarah's hobbies include exercising, reading, hanging out with friends, and being outdoors.

INSTRUCTING EXPERIENCE

Hitting instructor at E-B Barn – May to August 2016

Butler University softball camps – Fall 2014 to Spring 2018
