

2016 Fundraiser

A very talented artist and conservationist, Claudia Hafner, painted this watercolor from an Ernest Leupin photograph. The owls have recessive colored eyes; a sign of possible inbreeding, which we want to test in the future.

The saying "Hoot Dat" is a play on words from Who Dat, a historical chant that is a show of support.

Project Perch has t-shirts, beach totes, and water bottles!

Order right from the site and have them delivered to you.

<http://www.cafepress.com/burrowingowls/13499156>

Want to save on shipping?

Pick them up at any of our events.

T-shirts:     Adult sizes $35

Kid sizes $25

Beach Tote $30

Water Bottle $20

A minimalist, but still want to help? Just send a donation to the same address and put Project Perch in the check's memo line.

Funds raised will support our ongoing efforts to save the Burrowing Owls!