

2017 Applied Analytics Summer Camp

The Advanced Applied Analytics Center at Bryant University is proud to offer the Applied Analytics Camp to high school students for the summer of 2017.

Participants will have the opportunity to engage in an intensive one-week analytics-training program using SAS software. Distinguished professors at Bryant University will provide instruction.

DATES & TIME

Dates: Monday, June 26th - Friday, June 30th

Time: 9:00am to 3:30pm

APPLICATION DEADLINE IS JUNE 16, 2017

WHO CAN APPLY

- Students that have taken a course that covers basic statistics or a recommendation from a math teacher.
- Rising high school juniors and seniors, but rising sophomores may also apply.

MAJOR FEATURES

- Hands-on class instruction using SAS software, a leading software package for analytics
- Well-designed workshops and activities associated with analytics learning
- A final "Analytics Competition" where students present the results of a real-data analytics project

APPLICATION

Applicants can use the attached application or apply online at www.appliedanalyticscamp.com and provide the following additional materials:

- A short cover letter addressing "Why I want to participate in the Applied Analytics Summer Camp."
