Biography

Elaine Marie Stocker, 70, of Bad Axe passed away on Monday, January 18, 2021 from injuries sustained in a pedestrian automobile accident. Elaine was born September 27, 1950 in Bad Axe to the late Michael and Irene (Justewicz) Knoblock. She attended Carpenter rural school, St. Michaels Catholic School, and graduated from Port Austin High School in 1968. On September 27, 1969 she was united in marriage to Gerald W. Stocker. She was employed for many years at the Polewach Store in Bad Axe. Thereafter, she worked at Fashion Bug, and for a period managed the Dollar Daze store in Bad Axe and also worked at Buckley Shoes. Elaine was a people person. In her retirement she enjoyed keeping in touch with family and friends and showing her support for local businesses through Facebook. She was a Girl Scout leader, was involved in Relay for Life fundraising, and a member of the Huron Medical hospital auxiliary. She loved to bake for everyone, traveling and visiting with friends, and sent greeting cards for all occasions. Her greatest joy was the time she spent with her children and grandchildren.
