Zanesville Appalachian Arts Project

Volume 2 Issue 3

625 Main St. Zanesville, Ohio 43701

March 2015

Important Dates

- Membership Meeting: March 26th at 6 pm
- Drop off of Auction items: March 26-29th between 1-5 pm

It's time to donate items for the auction!

With your help and generosity we can have another very successful auction and allow ZAAP to continue as a vibrant part of the local art scene.

At the next membership meeting: local artists Linda Graham and Sandy Booth

Linda Graham and Sandy Booth are both alcohol ink artists. They were first introduced to the medium at a workshop in Chicago in 2013. Alcohol ink is highly fluid, transparent, and unconventional. It is definitely a medium that requires the artist to "go with the flow".

Approximately 20

works by Linda and Sandy were on display at the Seiler Studio in November 2014. They were two of the featured artists at ART CoZ fall fund raiser.

Examples of works created by artists (like this 1 from Linda) using alcohol inks can be found in numerous places on the internet and on Pinterest. You'll be amazed at the vibrant colors!

The Annual ZAAP Auction items will be on display during the month of April!

The ZAAP Auction is right around the corner and we need everyone's help to make it a financial success. Please be generous in your donations time, art, and art related items to this event. Publicity is crucial to generate a large crowd on May 1st and competitive bidding.

Jeff Koehler is returning to be the auctioneer for this important annual event at the gallery.

This year's auction will feature two tables of silent auction items and a live auction beginning at 8:30 pm. All items will be available in April for pre-auction bidding. So bid early and bid often. You don't want to miss a chance at getting a treasure from a ZAAP artist or supporter!

Items for the auction should be brought to the gallery March 26-29th between 1-5 pm.

Spring Cleaning at the ZAAP gallery is scheduled to take place on Friday March 27th. Your help will be needed to spruce up the gallery, paint pedestals, and other necessary chores. This is the day after our monthly membership meeting.

We are resurrecting an old ZAAP tradition. A group outing to create new works. This outing was formerly called "Eye for an Eye" and has been renamed "Free Range". A gathering of artists is planned for April 25th at Mission Oaks. You are invited to come paint, draw, photograph or just get inspired by the beautiful grounds. Bring a brown bag lunch for communal break at 1pm. You are welcome to arrive early or stay late and create. The works created will be shown in September in the Carnegie Wing of the McIntire library. ZAAP will be the "featured artists" for the month.

The ZAAP web site has been updated with new links, photographs and a 3 month calendar. Check it out! www.zaapart.org. If you would like a link posted to your web site please send it along to me.

If you have not paid your ZAAP dues for 2015 please do so A.S.A.P. Checks can be mailed to ZAAP P.O. Box 171 Zanesville OH 43701-0171

Tentative plans are being made for Karen Shaw Honaker to teach a watercolor class in April. The last class she taught in the ZAAP gallery was a very well received. Further information will be sent as plans are finalized. <http://karenshawhonaker.com/>

Ohio State Fair fine art competition applications will be available later this spring. <http://www.ohiostatefair.com/index.php/competitions-37/arts-crafts-a-fashion/fine-arts>

An electronic copy of the 2015 ZAAP calendar of events is being sent out with this newsletter.

Since there is no First Friday event in August because of the Y-Bridge Festival, the ZAAP gallery will be hosting a special show in August. "Refrigerator Art" will feature works by children associated with ZAAP members. SAVE THOSE MASTERPIECES for the show!

From our membership:

"Artistic Impact of Forms and Meanings"

In April 2015, Yan Sun Art Museum features a special exhibition of Hong Yin's paintings, "Artistic Impact of Forms and Meanings". Both oil and acrylics are included. Born into an artistic family, Hong Yin started painting and drawing when she was little. While she is interested in many subjects of painting, her favorite is about Tibetan people and land. She traveled to the Tibetan areas for many times and find endless inspirations for art creation. Hong Yin majored in painting while attending Northwest Normal University, Lanzhou, China. Opening reception: Friday, April 3, 2015, 5:00p.m.-8:30p.m. Location: 604 Main St. Zanesville,

OH Phone: 740-872-3676,
