Biography

Carol Jean Corbishley, age 76, of Bad Axe went home to be with her Lord and Savior on May 3, 2024. She was born on August 17, 1947, in Bad Axe Michigan, daughter of the late Frank (Agnes) Ross and the late Jeanette (James)Hewitt. Carol graduated from Ugly High School, the class of 1965 and went on to pursue her education at Spring Arbor College in Psychology and Social Science. She continued her education at Asbury Theological Seminary studying Christian Education, graduating in the class of 1976. She was employed as a Social Worker at Huron Medical Center where she worked until she retired after 31 years. After retirement, Carol became ordained as an Elder in the Free Methodist Church, East Michigan Conference, and served as a Pastor of Congregational Life at the Bad Axe Free Methodist Church the rest of her life. Carol lived her life to serve the Lord and to be an encouragement to other people. Her philosophy in life was to do the right thing no matter what. Her goal was to live an example to show others that God is with us no matter what. Love the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all ways acknowledge him and he will make your paths straight. Proverbs 3:5-6 She continued spreading her faith until her last days by sharing her daily bible verses on Facebook. Above all else, being a mother and Grandmother brought Carol the most joy. Affectionately referred to as "Grammy" by her three grandchildren: Fisher, Hazel, and Baker.
