A Note from Rick: Another week of steady to stronger prices across the board at TLA. We had the August Special Feeder Sale and didn't have a big volume of cattle to sell, but what we had was good quality and prices were stronger on both Holstein steers and Holstein heifers. These two markets have slowly and steadily strengthened over the last several months and this month was no exception. The Dairy Sale was a little stronger as well and continued to be more active. Slaughter prices were slightly stronger as well. Calf prices leveled off a bit from last week's very strong prices. Saturday was our bi-monthly Driving Horse Auction and it was another solid sale at TLA. We had a few real highlights and a bunch of good, honest horses that sold well. The warm, dry weather has seemed to speed up the silage chopping season and I want to wish everyone a safe and plentiful harvest. Hope to see you all soon at TLA!
