Just For Kix: Celebrating the Achievements of Every Student

By Haley Searls

As the Two Harbors Just for Kix dance program entered the last few weeks of its summer workshop, I heard great things about it from some students there. Curiosity led me to take a closer look at this local dance opportunity.

Just for Kix is a youth dance program located in Two Harbors, Minnesota. Classes are offered in a variety of dance styles, including kick, jazz, and hip hop for all youth in preschool through 12th grade. Just for Kix “celebrate[s] the achievements of every student, at any skill level.” Dance classes “provide young dancers a learning environment focused on team work, proven dance technique and confidence building.”

Due to an understanding of busy family schedules, Just for Kix offers several dance class opportunities throughout the year. Full-season classes (September to May) feature several performance and competition experiences. Six week classes, offered throughout the year and during the summer, give older dancers an opportunity to try out a different style of dance each week. Single day themed dance camps are for dancers in preschool through first grade. Day camps feature games, a craft or coloring project, and learning a dance, all of which fit into a fun theme such as “beach party” or “let it snow”. Some day dance camps even offer a performance opportunity!

Director Jaclyn Koehler says Just for Kix is “committed to youth dancers’ advancement through performance, we believe in every student. Backed by over 40 years of experience, our dedication to enabling dancers to shine created a learning environment like no other.”

I contacted Koehler, interested in learning more about her and her passion for teaching dance. She is recently married, and she and her husband have a yellow lab named Dakota. Besides dancing, Koehler loves to spend time with her family and enjoy the outdoors. Koehler began her dance career with Just for Kix in Elk River, dancing with the group for ten years. She also danced with her high school dance team in Rogers for five years, and then continued dancing for a year and a half in college before retiring from her own dance career to begin coaching. Koehler coached a high school dance team for five years before becoming the director of the Two Harbors Just for Kix two years ago. Koehler loves “getting to share my passion for dance with youth dancers and getting to know my dancers and their families through our program!”

Two youth dancers at Just for Kix are siblings Gwen and Jakob Fagerland. I asked them what they enjoyed most about dance. Gwen says, “I like the experience and physical activity.”

Jakob says, “Well, it pushes your limits sometimes and I love learning new dances and it’s fun. It’s fun that we’re going to learn a different type of dance every week. [in the summer workshop]. I have learned kick and hip hop.”
