

“La Casa del Suizo” at Rio Napo

from/to Quito

3 Days/2 Nights

5 Days/4 Nights

The first-class accommodation „La Casa del Suizo“, whose name indicates the foundation by a Swiss emigrant, is located on the shore of Ecuador’s majestic Napo River and a stone’s throw away from the eastern slopes of the Andes Mountains. Perched comfortably above the riverbank and the small Quichua Indian village of Ahuano, La Casa del Suizo overlooks vast expanses of the surrounding tropical rainforest environment and has spacious rooms with shower/toilet and an exquisite view which may be peacefully absorbed from the privacy of one’s own terrace including a hammock.

Itinerary for 4 Days / 3 Nights

Day 1: Quito – La Casa del Suizo

In the footsteps of the amazonas-discoverer Francisco de Orellan, you pass on one of the highest drivable mountain passes of the country (4.000 m) the east Andes. If the weather is good, you have a fantastic view of the snow-covered volcano Antisana (5.704 m). Later you cross rank cloud forests and tropical rain forests until you arrive at the Rio Napo, where canoes await for a late-afternoon 15-minute ride downstream to la Casa del Suizo.

Day 2-3: jungle adventure at the Casa del Suizo

You can join several activities: hike through the rank rain forest, undertake a cozy raft drive on the Río Napo, visit a family of the Quichua-Indians or just enjoy the silence at the pool or in your hammock.

Day 4: La Casa del Suizo – Quito

Return over the Andes to Quito.
