

UNPAID ENTRIES

Any show or sale which accepts entries without the payment of the required entry fees, etc., does so at its own risk and the A.G.M.A. will not be responsible for the collection of fees.

If a person makes payment for entries, etc., which is not negotiable, the Secretary of the show shall report the name and address of the Exhibitor in writing to the A.G.M.A. immediately.

Upon receipt of such notice, the A.G.M.A. shall notify the Exhibitor by certified mail of the indebtedness and state that unless settlement is made within thirty (30) days of the postmark, the exhibitor and all of the mules for which non-negotiable fees have been paid will automatically be barred from taking part whatsoever in affiliated shows until settlement is made.
