MAKE A BUTTERFLY

Read Eric Carle's THE VERY HUNGRY CATERPILLAR or (ON LINE)

For the wings...use coffee filter, paper towel square, napkin, tissue

Various ways to decorate...for the colors to bleed together

- Liquid dotters
- Watered down food coloring, dip the end of a straw or q-tip in and dab on
- Ever so lightly spray to dampen the wings, use markers to dab/dot

Scrunch the wings into a clothes pin, twist tie, pipecleaner, or tie with ribbon

Add pipe cleaner or twist tie for antennae.

OUTSIDE TIME-CHALK OBSTACLE COURSE (download map directions)

Use your chalk to create an obstacle course.

Add hopscotch (hop one foot, two feet), swirls (you have to twirl), make a box (do the crab walk through it), make shapes (diamond, oval, rectangle, star, etc.) and hop to each shouting out the name, make a curvy line (walk backwards).

What else can you think of?
