Warm greetings to all, especially to our inspiring Honorees Hon. Randall T. Eng, John Lam, and Po-ling Ng! What a great privilege to have them here tonight! Their leadership, in their respective areas of social services, business and law, and their dedication to improving the lives of so many, are inspirations. Their achievements in the face of great challenges leave us in awe. They are models for all of us.

In our third year, CACAGNY has continued and expanded its work on the challenges of Chinese Americans in this great nation. Always aware of our history, we focus on making real change in the present for the future. The Chinese Exclusion Act was repealed in 1943, but we continue to face exclusion today, particularly in education. We are members of a greater community, and we actively work towards extending access to better education to all. But we vigilantly defend the rights of Chinese American students and all other students to be judged by their merit, rather than their race or ethnic origins. We fight racial discrimination in protests, in suasion, in the ballot box, and, by becoming plaintiff in Christa McAuliffe PTO v DeBlasio, in the courts of law.

This year, we also recognize our Chinese American World War II Veterans with the national C.A.C.A.-led effort for the Congressional Gold Medal. Recognizing and building upon Chinese American achievements while defending our rights, we can make a better world for all.

We thank our friends and members for their support. We thank our sponsors and advertisers who make our work possible.

Enjoy the evening, and best wishes as we enter the holiday season and towards another year!

Sincerely,

Wai Wah Chin

CACAGNY Distinguished Honoree

Po-Ling Ng

Po-Ling Ng is the Assistant Executive Director of the Chinese-American Planning Council (CPC), the Director of Project Open Door, and a prior President and Vice President of Manhattan's Community School Board 2. Ms. Ng's many achievements to date have brought her a long way from her humble beginning.

Overcoming adversity since childhood, Ms. Ng has taken a path of hard work and determination. She was born and raised in a poor family of eight in China and then migrated with her parents to Hong Kong in 1949. Despite growing up in extreme poverty, she received a bachelors degree in Sociology from Chu Hoi College in 1963, as well as a teaching degree from the Sir Robert Black Teachers College of Education in 1967, now a part of the Education University of Hong Kong.

In hopes of a brighter future, Ms. Ng moved to New York with her husband in 1967. Language barriers kept her from continuing the teaching career she loved in Hong Kong, and instead she worked as a seamstress at a garment factory in Chinatown. In 1975, she was suddenly widowed and became the single mother of four. With the support of her mother-in-law, Ms. Ng went on to earn both a master's degree in social work from Fordham University in 1983 to provide better for her children. Grateful to her mother-in-law, she decided to dedicate her life to improving care for older adults in her community.

Ms. Ng has been the first and only Director of Project Open Door, a CPC facility that offers social services and educational, recreational, and cultural activities for older adults. This pioneering center is the largest of its kind, serving more than 800 Asian-Americans daily. Under her leadership, the initiative established the first Meals-On-Wheels program in New York City, as well as other trailblazing programs. Through her advocacy and networking, Project Open Door secured additional city funding in 2005 that tripled the amount of space in which to serve seniors. The renovation was heralded as a flagship example of how a senior center could incorporate lively, cutting-edge design with function and utility.

Over the past 50 years, Ms. Ng has made a meaningful impact on the lives of many generations – from children to seniors. She has been honored with over one hundred awards in the United States and China in recognition of her achievements.

New York NY 10002

Dear Friends,

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York's (CACAGNY) 2019 Annual Gala and Award Dinner.

Since its inception, CACAGNY has demonstrated a clear commitment to advancing the rights and welfare of the Asian American community in New York. Its mission in helping New Yorkers, including immigrant families, navigate our often daunting legal and educational system for the sake of future generations has had a lasting, positive impact. Through its many initiatives and projects, CACAGNY has established an indispensable role for itself as an invaluable resource for the community. I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate this year's honorees: Hon. Randall Eng, the first Asian American judge in the state of New York; John Lam, Chairman and CEO of Lam Group; and Po-ling Ng, Senior Services Director and Director of the Open Door Senior Center for the Chinese-American Planning Council.

On behalf of the New York State Assembly, I extend my best wishes for a successful evening and even greater future successes.

The Chinese American Citizen's Alliance of Greater New York
39 Bowery St. #613
New York, NY 10002

Dear Friends,

It is a pleasure to send my personal greetings to those in attendance at the 3rd Annual Chinese American Citizen's Alliance of Greater New York's Dinner Celebration. Since its re-establishment in 2016, the CACAGNY has worked tirelessly to empower Chinese Americans by advocating for them on the principles of fairness and equal opportunity. The CACAGNY's many accomplishments over the last three years are to be commended and recognized.

I'd like to offer my sincerest congratulations to all of tonight's honorees, it is wonderful to see that the hard work of members of our community is recognized, and I thank you for your time and efforts. I would also like to congratulate the recipients of the Det. Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship. I can think of no better way to honor the life and legacy of Detective Liu than by awarding scholarships in his name to those deserving.

I want to assure you that I will keep fighting to uphold the values and ideals of the Chinese-American community, including strongly opposing Mayor de Blasio's attempts to reduce standards at New York City Specialized High Schools and eliminate Gifted and Talented programs in our city's public schools. It has been an honor to work alongside various leaders in your community to ensure these programs never go by the wayside. I hope everyone enjoys their time at this year's Dinner Celebration. I join you in appreciation of another year of hard work by the CACAGNY.

CACAGNY Service Recognition Award

CACAGNY is grateful for the hard work of community members who toil, sometimes for years, on projects that affect the daily lives of their neighbors, without any thought of recognition. Whether fighting for better schools or access to them, protecting the Specialized High Schools, opposing new jails harmful to communities, or protesting improper dumping of crime-ridden shelters on unequipped neighborhoods, they work tirelessly, bravely and with commitment for their community. We recognize with great appreciation CACAGNY members Kenneth Chiu, Yiatin Chu, Qing Liu and Mandy Wong for their great service to our communities. They join 2018 recipients Vito LaBella and Linda Lam, the Christa McAuliffe PTO and 2017 recipients Phil Wong, Charles Vavruska, (both recognized in 2018 for their continuing extraordinary service) and Elmhurst United. Linda Lam, Vito LaBella, Phil Wong and Charles Vavruska are again recognized this year for their continuing exemplary service. CACAGNY also gratefully recognizes the Stuyvesant High School seniors Lauren Pehlivanian and Charlotte Yee, both of whom have served us years, particularly on the Congressional Gold Medal efforts, as well as other activities ranging from college talks to films.

C.A.C.A. Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship

The Chinese American Citizens Alliance Community Involvement Fund will fund the second Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship in honor of the Chinese American policeman slain in December 2014 while protecting and serving as one of New York City's finest. C.A.C.A. members from as far away as California and Oregon, led by President Ed Gor from Texas, were moved by the death of Det. Wenjian Liu three years ago in New York. Det. Wenjian Liu was from Toishan (Taishan) of Guangdong, a place many Chinese Americans call ancestral home; nearly all the early Chinese immigrants to the U.S. came from that one county. Our President Gor, also of Toishan County, reached out to our C.A.C.A. members to honor Liu with a living memorial to make a real, lasting impact to improve the future of our communities. Our members responded immediately and contributed funds to establish a scholarship to be named in honor of Det. Wenjian Liu and to support other Chinese-Americans who hope to serve their community by police work. We are pleased to present our third Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarships of $1,000 each award to two New Yorkers who aspire to be police officers: current John Jay College graduate student Crystal Lee and junior Jennifer Hong. They join 2018 recipients Bida Chen and Kenny Liu, and 2017 recipients Harrison Yuan and Peng Zhang.

Dear friends of Chinese American Citizens Alliance,

I am honored to extend my congratulations to all of the individuals who have joined the Chinese American Citizens Alliance on the occasion of their Third Anniversary Dinner celebration.

CACAGNY Opposes Discrimination against Asian Kids in NYC Education

The Mayor and Chancellor continued to hurt Asian kids' education. CACAGNY galvanized parents to protest and speak out, and joined a lawsuit against the City; all this resulted in opposition that De Blasio, Carranza, Albany, and the press could not ignore. CACAGNY spoke at forums and hearings held by the City Council, the State Education Committee, the State Assembly, and the State Senate, at all five boroughs in the City as well as in Albany. We showed DeBlasio's proposal to dismantle the Specialized High Schools to be so toxic that the State Legislature declined to consider DeBlasio's proposal in the last legislative session.

Fighting for Justice

CACAGNY joined a critical Federal lawsuit against the Mayor's unconstitutional racial gerrymandering for admissions to the Specialized High Schools. Asians make up about half the students at the Specialized High Schools, and Asians, many being recent immigrants, have the highest poverty rate in New York City. The Mayor and the Chancellor want to decimate Asian enrollment in the Specialized High Schools, and this lawsuit aims to stop them.

On the occasion of its Third Anniversary Dinner celebration, we honor the work of CACAGNY, formed in San Francisco in 1895, working toward empowering Chinese-Americans. The CACAGNY New York Chapter continues to work hard for its community in awarding scholarships, and holding forums on crime safety, college admission and films.

Congratulations to the recipients of the Det. Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship who emulate the values of the CACAGNY community.

Congratulations and best wishes for continued success to the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York (CACAGNY) community!

Dear Friends,

Congratulations to the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York (CACAGNY) on hosting its third anniversary dinner celebration. CACAGNY does remarkable work in empowering Chinese Americans and acting as advocates for Chinese-American interests. During my two years in office, I have seen firsthand the amazing work that your organization does. We have worked together on issues like protecting the Specialized High School Admissions Test (SHSAT) and fighting to keep Rikers Island open instead of building community jails throughout the city.

The Chinese American Citizens Alliance has served the community for over 120 years, and I am glad to see that three years ago Chinese-American leaders in New York decided to revive the chapter. Since then, CACAGNY has worked vigorously to offer scholarships, hold forums on crime and safety, assist students with the college admission process, defend the SHSAT, and lobby elected officials for the greater good of the Chinese community. CACAGNY also honors recipients with the Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship, a wonderful gesture memorializing a Chinese-American hero, a decorated NYPD officer who tragically passed away in 2014 while on duty with his partner. You are an incredible organization, and I am extremely proud to support you.

As a New York City Council Member, I will always advocate on behalf of the Chinese community. You have an ally in me; one that will always have your back.

Congratulations to all the honorees and the recipients of the Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement scholarship. Also, congratulations are in store for the celebration of CACAGNY's third anniversary dinner. Thank you for inviting me, and I wish you many more years of success in the future.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends:

It is with great pleasure that I extend my warmest greetings and congratulations on the occasion of the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York's Third Anniversary Dinner celebration at the Golden Unicorn Restaurant.

After a 30-year hiatus, two years the alliance brought back to New York a chapter of the national Chinese American Citizens Alliance, which has served as a nationally known advocate for Chinese Americans since 1895.

On behalf of the New York City Council, I'd like to commend the officers, staff and members of the New York Chapter of the Chinese American Citizens Alliance for their tireless work in providing needed services to our community. Congratulations also to the award recipients of the Det. Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship.
