Census Worker Sign-up Event

Grand Marais Public Library will host a representative from the 2020 Census on Monday, July 22, from 12 until 2PM. Recruitment remains ongoing for this decennial activity that is very important to the way our government and society conducts business.

A Recruiting Assistant will be on site to provide information about Census hiring, and to assist people with completing their online application for openings with the Census Bureau. The Bureau currently seeks people to do the lead up work prior to the actual census taking place in 2020. Positions include Address Canvasser, Crew Leaders and Field Supervisors to begin summer of 2019, and Enumerators that might start at a later date.

As with prior census events held at the library, this is a walk-in event. Those who might be interested may come in to meet with the Recruiting Assistant at any time during the hours listed. Interested parties may find more information at 2020census.gov/jobs.

Amish Midwife to appear at Grand Marias Library

Kim Woodward Osterholzer, aka the Amish Midwife, is scheduled to appear at the Grand Marais Public Library on Wednesday, July 24, at 6PM. Osterholzer plans to follow up on her very popular event held last summer with the presentation of her two new books Homebirth: safe & sacred, and Nourish and thrive: happy healthy childbearing.

Homebirth describes American homebirth and homebirth midwifery with an in-depth look at statistics, training, and the quality of care homebirth midwives are able to provide their clients. The book also examines national maternal and neonatal mortality and morbidity rates—sadly, the worst in the developed world—and how they appear to relate to the philosophy and policies of our current medical system.

Nourish is a discussion of how to achieve and maintain the level of health that positions women and their babies to enjoy normal, low-risk pregnancies, labors, births, postpartum recoveries, and seasons of new parenting—pregnancies, labors, births, postpartums, and parentings well-suited to home, if home is so desired.

A complementary event is also planned for 6 PM Wednesday, July 17, at the Cook County Community Center 4-H Log Building for a screening of the movie Why not home?

Kim Woodard Osterholzer, CPM, RM is a homebirth midwife of sixteen years with an active practice in Colorado Springs, Colorado. She has attended the births of nearly 600 little ones, including those of her grandbabies. She's founder and proprietor of both Birth at Home Midwifery Services and Born For This: Giving Birth to a Happy, Healthy Family. Osterholzer is the author of A Midwife in Amish Country, Celebrating God's Gift of Life; Nourish + Thrive: Happy, Healthy Childbearing; One Little Life at a Time: Recommendations + Record Keeping for Aspiring Homebirth Midwives; and Homebirth: Safe & Sacred. Kim lives with her husband Steven, and together they revel in a blended family of five children, two children-in-law, and—so far—three grandchildren. The author plans to have copies of her books available for purchase at the event.
