

THE NEW ENGLAND RHODESIAN RIDGEBACK CLUB

We are excited to announce our Spring event!

"Introduction to Barn Hunt Event"

Barn Hunt is the fastest growing dog sport in the U.S.* The popularity of the sport has exploded because the dogs and their people have so much fun. We welcome everyone, from seasoned dog sport competitors to people who have never been to a dog show. Our titles are recognized by the American Kennel Club, United Kennel Club, and Canadian Kennel Club.

Kim Lewis will discuss the basic rules and objectives of Barn Hunt.

This seminar is for people & dogs that have never done Barn Hunt & are new to the sport.

Some of the things we will cover.

Meet 'n Greet the rat

Instinct and Novice run

Learn your dog's alert signal

Practice novice tunnel.

Get your dog to climb on a bale of Hay

Food and Toys may be used in the ring

Everyone will receive 1 on 1 training when in the ring.

Put your Ridgeback's hunting instinct to work!

To sign up, contact:

Barbara Ferguson at sahibu@comcast.net

MASKS ARE REQUIRED

May 2, 2021

10:00 am to 1:00 pm

Lucky Dog Acres

56 Wendell Road

New Salem, MA 01355

20 Working Teams @
$60.00 each for members

We will be working from our cars.

No indoor crating or dogs
"hanging out" ringside.

Bring water, treats, crate,
buckle style collar and chair

No Choke, prong, electric collars, or flexi leashes
allowed on property

There will be a $10.00 per hay bale if peed on! Panties or belly bands are advised.

Payment holds your space