General Rules and Regulations

The Idaho Saddle Club Association, Benewah County nor the Officers, Agents, or volunteers will be held responsible for accidents or injuries to contestants, mounts, or spectators. Waivers on entry forms must be signed. Parent or Legal Guardian must sign for minors.

Rule and Regulations will be in accordance with the National Saddle Club Associations' rules.

You must be a member of an Idaho State Saddle Club prior to April 26, 2023 in order to compete at this event.

Grievances are to be in written form accompanied by a monetary amount of $25.00 and presented by your team captain to ISCA President within 30 minutes of the event in which the protest occurred. The Grievance will be reviewed by a 3 man rule committee, should the 3-man rule committee rule in your favor, the money shall be returned to you. Should the 3-man committee rule against you, your money is forfeited and the ruling will be upheld. ISCA President or his/her designee will advise you of the decision immediately following rendering of the final decision.

Automatic disqualification will occur for approaching any judges for any reason regarding yourself or another party.

Contestant's age shall be determined as of January 1, 2023.

No horse or rider shall be allowed to compete against themselves.

Idaho Saddle Club Association reserves the right at any time to reject or disqualify any entry because of disrespect of rules, abusive behavior toward an animal or another persona, intoxication, or any other reasonable cause.

Entry fee refunds will be made only with a signed statement from a Physician or a Veterinarian.

Full concessions will be available on site provided by St. Maries Saddle Club.

Entering the announcer's stand and or addressing the lane judges is off limits, see grievances above. Entry of announcer stand will result in disqualification of current event. Only ISCA board members are allowed in the announcers stand.

Western attire is required during this competition. See ISCA handbook for clarification on approved apparel.

Parking - Officers will be on site to direct parking. Portable stalls are allowable; however, they must be no larger than 10'X10'. Stalls must be adjacent to trailer/camper. Please understand parking area will be limited in size in order to accommodate everyone.

Horses are not allowed in any area designated as a non-horse area.

No bicycles allowed in or around the horses.

All dogs must be on a leash at all times. Pet owners MUST clean up after their dogs immediately! No exceptions.
