

This Week in Band: 2/11 – 2/15/2019

Announcements:

UIL Solo & Ensemble Results: Congratulations to all of the CHS Band students that prepared a solo / ensemble for UIL contest! There were many outstanding results including 133 1st Division UIL medals earned!! 31 students qualified for the UIL State Solo & Ensemble contest!!

Contest results can be viewed at: www.canyonband.org. Judge's critique sheets will be distributed Monday during class.

Special Event: Congrats to Joey Aldridge (10th Grade – CHS), Taylor Dartez (12th Grade – CHS), Ryan Lopez (7th Grade – CHMS), Nick Arnold (6th Grade – DMS), and Brody Dartez (6th Grade – DMS). They get to represent Comal ISD and the CHS feeder pattern percussion program at the TMEA convention on Thursday, 2/14, at 2:30 p.m. This is a clinic sponsored by the music publisher Row-Loff and will showcase performances of various solos and duets for percussion students.

Great Job CHS Winter Guards on representing CHS with pride at the TCGC winter guard contest in Georgetown Saturday! Both the Varsity and JV guards have very nice shows and keep showing continued improvement each week! We are so proud of the hard work of our color guard students!

Donations for Silent Auction: The annual Night of Percussion in April will have a silent auction again this year! We are currently accepting donations from businesses for this great fundraising opportunity for the band program (gift certificates, services, etc.). Please contact Kay Soliz at: kays18@live.com about any donations. Thank you!!
