

The February meeting of the Clinton County Board of Realtors was held at the General Denver and President Connie Grey called the meeting to order. The Pledge of Allegiance was recited. New members Ryan Paige of Southern Hills Bank, Jill Naylor of Wilmington Savings and David Hertlein of Peele and Lundy were introduced.

The minutes of the last meeting were read along with treasure's report. A motion to approve was made by Sheri McIntosh, second by Jeff Honnerlaw. Motion passed. The fund raising drawing was won by Marsha Bennett.

Under new business: Jeff Honnerlaw told about fake rentals that were on social media and the targeting of listings.

Under old business: Steve Riehle spoke about the upcoming pancake breakfast/ day of caring which will be February 24th from 9-1. Connie Grey announced that affiliate paperwork had been sent out and also available for pick up after the meeting.

The speaker of the day was Bob Schadd from Habitat which is celebrating its 25 years in Clinton County.

A motion to adjourn was made by Jeff Honnerlaw.