

Cow Drop

Rules and Determinations

Rules

1. Any individual, group or entity may secure as many “Cow Drop Squares” as they wish until they are all secured.
2. Each Cow Drop Square may be secured for a donation of $5.00.
3. Cow Drop Squares selection will be on a first come first serve basis.
4. Cow Drop Squares may be chosen by donator or may be randomly assigned by City or Tomato Days staff at the request of the donator.
5. Selections are final after the donation is accepted by City or Tomato Days staff.
6. The winning prize will be 25% of the Cow Drop donations with a maximum of $500.00.
7. Need not be present to win.

Determinations

1. All determinations of the Cow Drop Judges shall be final.
2. The location of the “Cow Pie” will be determined as the approximate center as ruled by the Cow Drop Judges.
3. The winning Cow Drop Square will be determined by measuring the Cow Pie location from the South and East boundaries of the rodeo arena.
4. If the Cow Pie is determined to be on a line between Cow Drop Squares, the winning square shall be the first square of deposit in the direction of the cow’s travel.
5. If the Cow Pie is scattered, the winning square shall be the first square of deposit.
6. If the Cow Pie is in an unsecured Cow Drop Square then the nearest secured Cow Drop Square as determined by the Cow Drop Judges will be the winner.
7. In the event that a cow does not make a deposit by the end of the event, then the winning Cow Drop Square will be randomly selected by a thrown dart.
8. Winner will be determined from official cow drop entry form, not the name placed on the arena grid.
9. If an issue arises that has not been addressed by these rules, then an on the spot final determination will be made by the Cow Drop Judges.

Conditions

1. The Cow Drop Event will begin at conclusion of the Dog Race and conclude when the deed is done or at 12:30.
2. The Cow will be released from bucking chute #4.
3. Cow Drop Squares are approximately 10’ x 10’.
4. Securing Cow Drop Squares will end when the cow enters the arena.
